

Camp Sequoia Counselor In Training (CIT) Program 2018

Program Description

Program Description: Learn to be a leader! This program is designed for individuals who are interested in learning about leadership and how to work with children. Participants will be able to experience the “camp leader” roll by assisting the camp staff in the administration of the program such as registration, drop off and pick up, and learn the basics of supervision, behavior management, camp activities, arts and crafts, how to lead a game, and risk management. CIT’s are always supervised by camp staff and will not be left alone with children.

Program Requirements: No previous experience is required, though students must be responsible and sincerely interested in working with children in a camp environment. Some camp Experience is preferred. CIT’s must be available Monday through Friday of the weeks they agree to work.

Fee: $50 per week, this fee demonstrates that you have committed to the program
